BIOGRAPHY OF ATTORNEY GENERAL IRWIN I. KIMMELMAN

Attorney General Irwin I. Kimmelman was born on September 10, 1930, in Newark, New Jersey. He graduated from the Rutgers School of Business Administration in 1952, and from Harvard Law School in 1955, where he won the Roscoe Pound Prize for brief writing in oral advocacy. General Kimmelman and his wife, Margaret, have two children.

General Kimmelman served as a law secretary to a Superior Court Judge, and was appointed Assistant United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey in 1956. Between 1958 and 1971, he practiced law in Newark. In November, 1963, he was elected to the New Jersey Assembly from Essex County. From 1968 to 1970, he served as Essex County Counsel, Counsel for the New Jersey Association of Chosen Freeholders, and President of the New Jersey Association of County Counsels.

In 1970, he was appointed by the Governor to serve as chairman of the New Jersey Election Law Revision Commission, and, in June of 1971, he was appointed by the Governor as a Judge of the Superior Court of New Jersey, where he served on the Chancery Division until 1976, when he resigned.

From 1976 to 1982, he was a partner in the law firm of Kimmelman, Wolff & Samson in West Orange, and, on January 19, 1982, he was appointed by Governor Thomas H. Kean to serve as Attorney General of the State of New Jersey, and was confirmed by the Senate.

General Kimmelman is an Editor of the New Jersey Law Journal, and a Fellow of the American Bar Association.

Known in the industry as the pioneer of Spanish TV, DON PASSANTE actually began his career in TV as moderator for WOR's "America Speaks." He served as public relations director of the U.S. House of Representatives, Education-Labor Committee. During World War II, he was an intelligence correspondent. He holds three degrees — B.A., M.A., and L.L.D. In TV, he narrated "The Spanish Hour," a variety program on WOR-TV in 1950. For NBC, he helped to create "Meet the Press" and "Author Meets the Critic." Through this exposure to audiences, he has become a well-known face and voice in the world of Spanish advertising and television. He constantly appears in newspapers, and is on television every week with his own show, "The Picture of the Week." The show has been so successful that it has expanded its audiences from Channel 47 in New York City to WCIU-TV in Chicago and WAJA-TV in Miami, and to the WKBM (CBS) TV network in Puerto Rico.

Luis Gonzalez entered Law Enforcement on May 7, 1973, with the Essex County Sheriff's Office. He was assigned to the Narcotic Bureau, where he remained until 1981. In 1981, he became a squad leader responsible for the training of new undercover men. Also while at the Sheriff's Department, he received commendations from the Drug Enforcement Administration, the New Jersey State Police, and the Newark Police Department for exceptional undercover work.

In July of 1981, Luis Gonzalez was appointed Investigator with the Union County Prosecutor's Office. He was assigned to the Narcotic Strike Force, where he remained until March of this year. While in the Narcotic Strike Force, his primary function was working in an undercover capacity. Presently, he is working for the Family Court/Child Abuse Unit.

In 1983, Investigator Gonzalez received a recognition award from the New Jersey Narcotics Enforcement Officers' Association. He is a member of the Hispanic Law Enforcement Association, the Municipal Investigators' Association of Union County, the PBA, and the N.J.N.E.O.A.
